

BLOCKCHAIN MASTERCLASS

Uses and Applications for Financial Institutions and Corporates, from a Non-Technical Perspective

31st October 2017, InterContinental, KUALA LUMPUR

The use of crypto assets and distributed ledger technology in business and financial institutions promises secure, streamlined and faster processing of information. From specific functions such as supply chain and trade financing to more generic uses such as document management and processing systems, the potential uses for businesses and financial institutions are almost unlimited.

REDmoney Seminars and Neuroware bring you an intense customized workshop session to allow for a better understanding of blockchains, other forms of distributed ledgers and the various protocols that are being developed upon them.

KEY LEARNING OUTCOMES

- Differences between Bitcoin, Blockchains and Distributed Ledgers
- Applications for Day to Day Business and Financial Uses
- Applying Specific Tools to Specific Requirements
- Benefits for Cost Savings, Efficiency and Security
- Uses for Developing New Projects, Initiatives and Processes

Presented by Neuroware

AGENDA

9.00am – 12.30pm

Introducing Distributed Ledgers

This session is an introduction to distributed ledgers: what they are, why they are useful and how they can be applied to business and financial processes. The outcome of this session is for non-technical professionals to be able to differentiate between the various forms of distributed ledgers available, how and why we have them and what they can potentially be used for both now and in the future.

This session will be delivered through lectures, case studies, discussions and demonstrations and will cover the following important topics:

- Introducing Money, Assets & Ledgers
What is Bitcoin, and how did it come to be? Answering fundamental questions and explaining key facts
- Understanding Blockchain Technology
Examining Blockchain from a non-technical perspective and assessing use cases for businesses and financial institutions
- Blockchain Generations
From digital currencies to open assets & smart contracts; what can be done today and how can these tools be applied?

12.30am – 5.00pm

Crypto Asset Bootcamp

This session will introduce the characteristics, uses and applications of crypto assets and currencies. The outcome of this session is for everyone in the room to own some form of crypto-asset, but more importantly, for them to understand where it is stored and why it has been stored that way.

This will be a very hands-on session and will allow participants to gain practical experience of the application of crypto assets. Half of the session will be guided through presentations with the other half being spent actively using and exploring Blockchain technology through crypto-currency transactions.

The session will be delivered through lectures, case studies, discussions and demonstrations whilst covering the following important topics:

- Cryptography
From hashes to encryption and key generation - demystifying the technology from a non-technical perspective and assessing important security features
- Wallets
From paper, to brains through hardware or software - what are the differences? What are the potential uses for such applications in businesses and finance?
- Digital Certificates
Learn how data can be securely stored on the blockchains through an active use case involving digital certificates specifically designed for this class.

5.00pm

Conclusion

We'll undertake a quick review of what we have covered today and what can be taken back to your organization in terms of real ideas and initiatives.

Coffee will be served at 10.30am and 3.30pm and lunch will be served from 12.30pm to 2.00pm

Who Will Benefit?

This one-day intensive workshop will benefit any professional looking to understand blockchains or distributed ledger technology and how they might be beneficial to their organizations. Such organizations includes banks and other financial institutions; as well as corporates, government departments and consultancies.

The seminar will be presented from a non-technical perspective and will specifically benefit the following job functions:

- Strategy and Innovation
- Product Development
- Marketing
- Product Delivery & Distribution
- Management
- Support functions such as Finance, HR and Risk Management

Seminar Objectives

The goal of this training session is to help organizations understand blockchains by putting their team members that attend in a position to answer the following questions:

1. What are the differences between bitcoin, blockchains & distributed ledgers?
2. How do these different tools work?
3. How can they be applied for day to day business and financial uses?
4. Which specific tools can be best applied to your organization's needs?
5. What benefits will you see in cost savings, improved efficiency and security?
6. How can they be used to develop new projects or business opportunities?

Neuroware

Mark Smalley is Founder & CEO of R1 DOT MY, a technology solutions provider incorporated in Malaysia in 2012, from where it has been consulting with several organizations and startups to help implement and adopt new technologies such as NoSQL storage and distributed ledgers.

Neuroware is the brand name for R1 DOT MY's Blockchain and distributed ledger technology solutions. It was first established when the company was selected to join Batch 9 of the illustrious 500 Startups accelerator program in Silicon Valley at the beginning of 2014. It was during time there in the USA that Venturebeat declared Neuroware as one of the 5 most promising startups to watch from the Batch 9 demo day pitches that took place at Microsoft.

Since 2015, R1 DOT MY have been dealing with a broad spectrum of both regional and central banks, national regulators, telecommunication providers and licensed equity crowdfunding institutions from within both Malaysia and Singapore. R1 DOT MY have consulted Maybank and DBS bank and have helped to organize the only bank-backed Blockchain hackathons to have taken place in Asia. They help organizations such as this to not only understand, but also begin to implement Blockchain technology and the various distributed protocols developed upon them.

Recently featured as one of Malaysia's top-ten FinTech companies, R1 DOT MY spent the past year developing Cortex which acts as a single unified platform for managing distributed ledgers and the various nonfinancial distributed protocols they have been building.

Booking, Payment and Cancellation Policy – important, please read carefully

By completing, signing and sending us this registration form you are confirming delegate places on the seminar. You are also confirming your understanding of our Booking, Payment and Cancellation Policy.

Cancellation: If delegates cannot attend the seminar replacement participants are always welcome. Otherwise delegates must request in writing (letter, fax or email) to cancel registration/s or transfer to a different seminar at least 21 days before the seminar start date to be eligible for a refund, less a 5% administration fee. Delegates who cancel within 21 days of the seminar start date, or who do not attend, are liable to pay the full seminar fee and no refunds will be given. Instead fees will be converted to a IFN Seminars voucher equivalent to the original fee, less a 15% administration charge. This voucher is transferable within your organization and must be redeemed within one year of issue or become void. If a seminar is postponed for whatever reason delegate bookings will be automatically transferred to the new seminar date. Delegates who wish to transfer to a different seminar will be subject to the same terms as above and charged the difference in seminar fees. No refunds or seminar vouchers will be issued for a no-show.

Payment Terms: All seminars fees are to be received within 14 days of invoice date. REDmoney shall receive the full seminar fee with no deductions of any description. All telegraphic transfer fees, taxes and levies (domestic or otherwise) shall be borne by the sponsoring organization.
