- La législation des Real Estate Investment Trusts (REITs) a été actée en mai 2013 sur fond d'un nouveau traitement fiscal de la classe d'actifs. Celle-ci a insufflé un nouvel élan à la capitalisation boursière des OPCIs.
- Avant les OPCIs, deux classes d'actifs permettant une exposition sur le secteur existaient déjà. Les "Property Loan Stocks" et "Property Unit Trusts"; cependant, elles ne disposaient pas du même traitement fiscal que les OPCIs limitant ainsi leur essor.
